Heart of Darkness and the Secret Sharer "Joseph Conrad 2008-08-05 In this pair of literary voyages into the inner self, Joseph Conrad has written two of the most compelling, haunting portrayals of the dark side of man. Heart of Darkness is a devastating commentary on the corruptibility of humanity. Based on Conrad's own 1890 trip up the Congo River, the story is told by Marlow, the novelist's alter ego. It is a journey into darkness and horror—both literally, as the narrator descends into a sinister jungle landscape, and metaphorically, as he encounters the normally imperious Mr. Kurtz. The Secret Sharer is the tale of a young sea captain's first command as he sails into the Gulf of Siam—and into an encounter with his mysterious "double." The shadow side of the uncannily close-knit crew, Joseph Conrad relies on the novel's novel form, filling his writing with the exciting effects of light and shade. This novel features an extended biography of Flannery O'Connor.
