Doctor Who in the present day, as Cooke unravels the mystery, he must question if the horror he is uncovering was in fact only the start of something much worse... must protect themselves against whatever is lurking in the woods. But as suspicion and panic grow, perhaps their own terror will be just as dangerous. Or maybe, whatever’s out there is worse than anything they can imagine. Back

In 1875, the hour of the end has come - but they soon realise what true danger is. When a woman is found murdered, one of the Indian party struggles wounded back to camp, whispering of unspeakable evil as he dies. United by fear, the settlers and the Indians
