as follows or as below - WordReference Forums

Nov 2, 2021 · On its own, the word "below" is really quite vague, so "see below" is best suited to a short text such as a label or notice or any single-page document. In a technical/academic book or article, "below" might be used in relation to a later paragraph, section or even chapter, so the reader normally needs a more detailed reference. shAmAn49025
