I knew what I had to do. Everything would be different this time, this seventh life, this last chance. I had a plan... a remedy... a plan. I still the moment I reached her again.

Hometown Heartless
Carrie Aarons 2020-01-21

One year ago, the boy next door was captured as a prisoner of war. The boy whose window faces mine. The backyard buddy who bandaged up my skinned knees. The childhood crush that kept me up at night, wondering if he'd ever be my boyfriend. The town hero I wrote endless letters to after he shipped out. The green-eyed charmer who promised me a kiss the day I turned eighteen. And now, he's home. But he didn't come back as the boy I once knew. He's a man now, one with demons I can't comprehend. The damaged soldier keeps telling me I'm not his anymore. That the war took him, turned him into someone unrecognizable. What he hasn't considered is that it took me, too. He swears there is nothing left between us, that his heart died overseas. But with each fated meeting, the truth only becomes more evident. Everett Brock occupies the shadows now. And as much as I try to pull him into the light, it seems the switch is permanent. What he doesn't realize is that I'm willing to follow him into the darkness.
