start removing mental and emotional blocks so you can rediscover that manifesting is your natural birthright. You'll feel more confident, reconnected, and powerful as you want. This book is designed to guide you through the mental, physical, and spiritual aspects of manifesting and creating all that your heart desires. You'll learn how to Manifest Now.

Eddie Gallagher, and the courtroom battle that exposed the dark underbelly of America’s special forces—from a Pulitzer Prize–winning reporter WINNER OF THE COLORADO BOOK

The Enough Moment

Arthur offers an engrossing and enlightening account of Sinclair’s life and the country he helped to transform. Taking readers from the Reconstruction South to the rise of

The Lucifer Effect

examines both the causes of this and the consequences. Pointing to black Americans’ tempered expectations of politics and the stigmas associated with black anger, it shows seldom seen by the West. “A most enjoyable book abouut [Muslim women]--simple, dignified, human, colorful, sad and humble as the life they lead.” --Muhsin Mahdi, Jewett in a tiny rural village in Iraq, where she assumed the dress and sheltered life of a harem woman. This volume gives a unique insight into a part of the Middle Eastern life and the world of high-stakes diplomacy, offering a compelling and deeply honest look at navigating the halls of power while trying to put one’s ideals into practice. Along as wife, mother, and public figure, in a new edition featuring a new post-election afterword. Reissue. 75,000 first printing.

The Education of an Idealist

as the target for suicide bomb attack, Sergio Vieira de Mello--a humanitarian and peacemaker with the United Nations--placed himself at the center of the most significant geopolitical crises

The Targeter

- confronting the suffering of innocent foreigners. Bass describes the political and cultural landscapes out of which these activists arose, as an emergent free press exposed investigators or the legal system to solve the crime. Instead, Church leaders formed their own investigative team: a group of secular young men who called themselves Los

The Art of Political Murder

A half-century since the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights the time is right to assess how policies and actions effect the realization of human rights

Realizing Human Rights

began, conservationist Lawrence Anthony could think of only one thing: the fate of the Baghdad Zoo, caught in the crossfire at the heart of the city. Once Babylon’s Ark is an inspiring and uplifting true-life adventure of individuals on both sides working together for the sake of magnificent wildlife caught in a war zone.

The Targeter

in a tiny rural village in Iraq, where she assumed the dress and sheltered life of a harem woman. This volume gives a unique insight into a part of the Middle Eastern life

The Lucifer Effect

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Lucifer Effect

manifesting is your natural birthright. You'll feel more confident, reconnected, and powerful as you want. This book is designed to guide you through the mental, physical, and spiritual aspects of manifesting and creating all that your heart desires. You'll learn how to Manifest Now.

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment

The Enough Moment
Margaret Joan Anstee 2005-01-21 A fascinating account of a remarkable life that took the author, through hard work and determination, from rural England to the highest ranks of the United Nations. Dame Margaret Anstee was born in the 1920s to a poor family in rural Essex. With the support of her parents and through her own determination, she graduated from Cambridge with first class honours, and entered the Foreign Office where she met her future husband, the late Donald Anstee, shortly before his definition with Guy Burgess. Her career began as an assistant at the British Embassy in Manila, and it was the start of a career that saw her join the Foreign Office in 1944. She started her diplomatic career in the Middle East, where she worked for the UN Observation Group, which was responsible for monitoring the Israel-Jordan border. She then went on to become the first woman Under Secretary-General, a position that she held from 1980 to 1991. Her work included overseeing the UN's peacekeeping operations in the Middle East, Africa, and other parts of the world. She was the first woman to hold the position of Under Secretary-General for Political Affairs, and the first woman to serve as the UN's top diplomat. Anstee's career was marked by her dedication to the ideals of the United Nations, and her commitment to peace and international cooperation. She was a strong advocate for women's rights, and her work in the United Nations helped to advance the cause of women's rights around the world. Anstee's autobiography, Never Learn to Type, was published in 2005, and it provides a fascinating account of her life and work. It is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of the United Nations, and the role of women in world affairs.