The 1920s and 1930s, and with a clear differentiation between child analysis proper and analytical child psychotherapy. Alex Holder takes into account the historic background in which child psychoanalysis developed, especially the movement of people like Norbert Wiener and the psychoanalytic movement in the United States, and their influence on the development of child psychoanalysis in the United Kingdom. He also examines the relationship between child psychoanalysis and psychoanalysis of adults, the differences in the theories of the two fields, and a special focus on clinical work. The book is a valuable resource for therapists, researchers, and students who are interested in the development and practice of child psychoanalysis.

American Pickers Guide to Picking: Junk is Beautiful When we knock on a door, 90 percent of the time the things we find are junk. But we don't care about the odds; a picker never turns down an opportunity, no matter where it is. We've picked pickup trucks. We've picked flat beds. We've picked pick-up trucks. We've picked junk in Jerusalem in 1967 and Mecca in 1979. Sacred sites, he contends, are particularly prone to conflict because they provide valuable resources for both religious and political actors yet cannot be divided. The management of Mount/Haram el-Sharif, leading to the clashes of 2000, and the competing claims of Hindus and Muslims at Ayodhya, which resulted in the destruction of the mosque in 1992.

Libby Callaway 2011-09-13 A true adventure story and the go-to guide for "picking" American treasures from anyone's backyard, straight from the stars of History's American Pickers In these pages, professional treasure hunter Mike Wolfe and Frank Fritz chronic their road trips across the American countryside in search of "rusty gold" to buy and sell among the picking world's own cadre of捡拾者. Whether you are a fast of the show or just like finding hidden riches, you will love seeing what Wolfe and Fritz dig up and enjoy meeting the devoted collectors, extreme scroungers, and elite dealers who they encounter along the way. Wolfe and Fritz do not deal in antiques. Their secondhand treasures are of the down-and-dirty sort and sometimes even scarier stuff, from rusted parts and vintage tools, to rusted-backyard cars and hand-made furniture, rusted carburetors and guns.
