Paragraph Development Martin L. Arnaudet 1990-01-01 Paragraph Development helps editors edit their own writing for clarity and accuracy and offers a three-phase strategy for building writing skills through planning, writing, and revising. The approach in each chapter is direct and functional: a model is provided and graphically explained, then students use the model to write their own paragraphs.-- Offers controlled information-transfer exercises, a choice of writing topics, and peer consultation and writing-evaluation methods.

The Craft of Research, Third Edition Wayne C. Booth 2009-05-15 With more than 400,000 copies now in print, The Craft of Research is the unrivaled resource for researchers at every level, from first-year undergraduates to research reporters at corporations and government offices. Seasoned researchers and educators Gregory G. Colomb and Joseph M. Williams present an updated third edition of their classic handbook, whose first and second editions were written in collaboration with the late Wayne C. Booth. The Craft of Research explains how to build an argument that motivates readers to accept a claim; how to anticipate the reservations of readers and to respond to them appropriately; and how to create introductions and conclusions that answer that most demanding question, "So what?" The third edition includes an expanded discussion of the essential early stages of a research task: planning and drafting a paper. The authors have revised and fully updated their section on electronic research, emphasizing the need to distinguish between trustworthy sources (such as those found in libraries) and less reliable sources found with a quick Web search. A chapter on warrants has also been thoroughly reviewed to make this difficult subject easier for researchers Throughout, the authors have preserved the amiable tone, the reliable voice, and the sense of directness that have made this book indispensable for anyone undertaking a research project.

Get Writing: Paragraphs and Essays Mark Connelly 2012-02-10 GET WRITING: PARAGRAPHS AND ESSAYS helps developmental students learn to think and plan before they write, and evaluate their own and others' writing, with a focus on critical thinking through features called Critical Thinking: What Are You Trying to Say? and Revision: What Have You Written? The text helps those who are struggling with writing requirements, including recent high school graduates, returning students, or those for whom English is a second language. Integrated exercises enable them to practice what they have just learned, and student papers in annotated first and revised drafts provide realistic models. Sample professional writing demonstrates how writers understand the context of their writing, utilize writing strategies, and make language choices.

Real Skills with Readings Susan Arner 2013 "Real Skills with Readings, Third Edition, offers practical, accessible coverage of basic sentence skills and paragraph-writing. Get Writing Mark Connelly 2005 This text is an excellent introduction to paragraph and essay writing. It provides students with the skills needed to write clear, coherent, and well-organized paragraphs and essays. The book emphasizes the importance of planning and drafting, and includes a variety of writing exercises to help students develop their writing abilities. A Writer's Workshop Bob Brannan 2002-01-01 From paragraph to essay, this process-based developmental writing class emphasizes good writing as a craft that students hone through practice. The book offers detailed instructions, explanations, examples, student models and activities. It guides students through the writing process to produce college work. This approach is intended to help students experience the writing process even as they achieve practical, assignment-related goals. Each assignment chapter offers two or three student samples with extensive, focused apparatus, in addition to an annotated student sample in four drafts. The text is divided between paragraph and essay, with enough assignments in each unit to allow an instructor to teach mostly paragraph, mostly essay, or balance the two.
