Parentology

Parentology Dalton Conley 2014-03-18 An award-winning scientist offers his unorthodox approach to childrearing: "Parentology is brilliant, jaw-droppingly funny, and full of wisdom...bound to change your thinking about parenting and its conventions" (Amy Chua, author of Battle of the Tiger Mother). If you're like many parents who feel overwhelmed by the demands of parenthood, you're not alone. In Parentology, Dalton Conley, one of the most original social scientists of our time, uses his signature mix of irreverent humor and acute social analysis to show you how to be a better parent. Conley zeroes in on the transformative power of the smallest decisions: from letting his kids do math (since studies show conditional cash transfers improved educational and health outcomes for kids) to teaching them impulse control by giving them weird names (because evidence shows kids with unique names learn not to react when their peers tease them) to getting a vasectomy (because fewer kids in a family mean smarter kids). Conley encourages parents to let their kids define who they are and where that level of engagement with kids will produce solid and happy ones. Ultimately these experiments are very lovely, and the outcomes are redeeming—even when Conley's savvy kids show him the limits of his profession. Parentology teaches you everything you need to know about the latest literature on parenting—with a side of humor that go-down-easy. You'll be laughing and learning at the same time.

Jeremy Zag 2019-11-19 The second season of MIRACULOUS: TALES OF LADYBUG & CAT NOIR is collected here! This TPB features the episodes “Reverser” and “Frozer.” In “Reverser,” a shy writer feels betrayed by Ladybug and Cat Noir, and asks Ladybug for help to overcome his shyness. Ladybug reverses him, turning him into a confident writer. However, when Cat Noir reverses Marinette, he turns her into a super clumsy student. In “Frozer,” Hawk Moth attacks a high school where Marinette and Cat Noir are attending. Hawk Moth uses his Frozer gadget to freeze anyone who touches him, and he wants to freeze Marinette and Cat Noir. However, they manage to escape and defeat Hawk Moth. Ladybug and Cat Noir are happy to help their friends again.
