Keys to Drawing with Imagination Bert Dodson 2006-11-13 Draw with Confidence and Creativity! Now in paperback! Creativity occurs in action. It is not a trait; it is something you do. To be creative, you need to engage in the art-making process. When you’re “in the flow,” you shut out the future and into the present, making connections, generating variations and surrendering to the process. This book is an approach to acting in the present, through drawing, to discover rather than learning. We have given exercises for immediate practice almost after every topic. We have designed the “exercises” to include all types of questions especially the multiple choice questions (MCQs).
