The House of the Scorpion
Nancy Farmer 2013-08-01 Matt is six years old when he discovers that he is different from other children and other people. To most, Matt isn’t considered a boy at all, but a beast, dirty and disgusting. But to El Patron, lord of a country called Opium, Matt is the guarantee of eternal life. El Patron loves Matt as he loves himself— for Matt is himself. They share the exact same DNA. As Matt struggles to understand his existence and what that existence truly means, he is threatened by a host of sinister and manipulating characters, from El Patron’s power-hungry family to the brain-deadened miria and mindless slaves that tend Opium’s poppy fields. Surrounded by a dangerous array of hoodlums, scammers in the self-proclaimed Matt has to survive. But even change is no guarantee of freedom, because Matt is marked by his difference in ways that he doesn’t even suspect.

The Dog With Nine Lives
Della Galton 2012-03-29 When Della found a stray dog living wild with her thirteen puppies on a beach in Rhodes she was determined not to get involved. But fate had other ideas and Della brought Lindy back to England. Lindy had already proved herself to be a true survivor, but she was more of a survivor than Della had ever dreamed. Over the next eight years she survived a series of events, any one of which might have finished off a lesser dog than Lindy. They included being stampeded by a herd of angry cows; a rare life threatening form of anaemia; being swept down the river after chasing ducks; falling out of a car travelling at speed, and getting lost for a night in a forest. The Dog with Nine Lives is both poignant and humorous. Dog lovers will love it. It is the true story of a very special dog.
