Palmer movie review & film summary (2021) | Roger Ebert

Jan 29, 2021 · It's the harsh reality Palmer navigates while reconnecting with old childhood friends and living with his gracious grandmother, Vivian (June Squibb). Next door to his grandmother's house lives Shelly (Juno Temple) and her young son, Sam (Ryder Allen), and they become a part of Palmer's new life, too. Shelly's a troubled woman struggling with addiction, and she soon exits the scene without any word on when (or if) she would be back.
