Fallocaust Quil Carter 2014-07-09 Over two hundred and thirty years ago the Fallocaust happened, killing almost everything that lived and creating what is now known as the greywastes. A dead wasteland where cannibalism is a necessity, death your reality, and life before the radiation nothing but pictures in dog-eared magazines. Reaver is a greywaster, living in a small block controlled by a distant ruler said to have started the Fallocaust. He is a product of the savage world he was raised in and prides himself on being cold and cruel. Then someone new to his town catches his eye, someone different than everyone else. Without knowing why he starts to silently stalk him, unaware of where it will lead him.

A Secondhand Lie Pamela Crane 2018-04-01

Sometimes you know things you're not supposed to know. Things that you can never un-know. Things that will change the course of your life...and the fate of the ones you love. I found her in our living room, bleeding and close to death, but alive. Barely. Until morning stole her last breath. The media called her killer the "Triangle Terror" ... and then forgot about her. But I never forgot—my murdered sister, and an investigation that led to my own resurrection from the dead. Twenty-two years ago, on a cold February night, Landon Worthington lost his father for the last time. After an armed robbery gone wrong, evidence and witness testimony pointed a shaky finger at Dan Worthington—deadbeat dad and alcoholic husband. But before the dust could settle over the conviction, Landon's preteen sister, Alexis, is murdered in their home, plunging Landon's life into further despair. Two decades and a cold case later, Landon is dogged by guilt over their estranged relationship and decides to confront his incarcerated father about what really happened the night of the robbery. But the years of lies are hard to unravel. And the biggest question of all haunts him: How does everything tie into his sister's murder? And so begins Landon's journey to piece together the puzzle of secrets, lies, and truths that can free his father, avenge his sister, and perhaps save himself. A short story mystery perfect for fans of Robert Dugoni's Third Watch and Dean Koontz's The Neighbor. Read as a standalone or as the companion book to A Secondhand Life. A Summer Life Gary Soto 1991-08-01 Gary Soto writes that when he was five "what I knew best was at ground level." In this lively collection of short essays, Soto takes his reader to a ground-level perspective, resreating in vivid detail the sights, sounds, smells, and textures he knew growing up in his Fresno, California, neighborhood. The "things" of his boyhood tie it all together: his Buddha "spotched with gold," the taps of his shoes and the "engines of sparks that lived beneath my soles," his worn tennies smelling of "summer grass, asphalt, the moist sock breathing the defeat of basesall." The child's world is made up of small things-small, very important things.

Welcome to the Sixth Terrace of Dante's tower of Purgatory, serving up sins of gluttony in an eternal banquet. On this carefully curated menu you'll find children stuffing themselves to death, a forgotten saviour gorging on cheeseburgers between bareknuckle rounds on the roadhouse circuit, wealthy socialites revel in an orgiastic alien feast, and the end of days as seen through an apocalyptic carnival of indulgence. Excessive consumption also manifests in darker hungers, for cruelty, for distraction, or possession. A pair of grifters bent on having it all chase a Scottish leprechaun across the English countryside, a newly deceased addict vies for the attention of Heavenly Higher Ups, degenerate poker players gamble with unforeseen currency, and when an old lady swallows a fly, it's just the beginning... Featuring nine stories of grotesque appetite and glorious excess from a gory gaggle of creators, they say too much of anything is poison, yet these condemned swallow each piece of forbidden fruit while reaching for the next, never to be sated. They can't help themselves. Can you? Its central claim is that the responses of left Heideggerians to continuing disclosures regarding Heidegger's Nazi affiliations fail to come to terms with central ambiguities in his philosophical responses, both early and late, to modernity and technology. . . . Incisive and hard hitting, Luc Ferry and Alain Renault have condensed in a short and tightly organized book both a judicious and well-informed account of the Heidegger question and an implicit defence of humanism which has a strong political resonance."—Liam O'Sullivan, Political Studies

Passage to Faith Michael J Lee 2021-02-19
Passage to Faith is Book 1 in The Faith Today Trilogy series. Passage to Faith explores current scientific evidence supporting the case for the existence of a creator God. It draws on dozens of historical testimonies of individuals who had encounters with a Supreme Being which influenced them to change their lives, and sometimes the world, for the better. Taking the reader on an evidence-based tour through the cosmos, Lee, qualified in the fields of the philosophy of futures studies, theology, literature and education, reveals a stunning degree of indwelling intelligence and beauty on display throughout the universe and on Earth. He then traces the common ground between the creation account in Genesis in the Bible and scientific cosmology, the Big Bang theory and Albert Einstein's theory of relativity. Lee discusses the faith of a wide range of people from different eras and disciplines to reinforce the conviction that God's redeeming power actively intervenes not just in nature but in history. These examples include, among others, figures from history like Joan of Arc, Nelson Mandela and Barack and Michelle Obama, scientists and mathematicians like Copernicus, Galileo, Kepler, Newton, Faraday, Mendel, Pasteur, Pascal, George Washington Carver, Dr Wernher von Braun, Professor Christiaan Barnard and Francis S. Collins, missionaries like John Wesley, Mother Theresa, Dr David Livingstone, Dr Albert Schweitzer, and Jackie Pullinger, singers, entertainers, and actors such as Bob Dylan, Johnny Cash, Jim Reeves, Glen Campbell, Alice Cooper, Gary Cooper, John Wayne, Alfred Hitchcock, Mark Wahlberg, Mel Gibson, Sylvester Stallone, and Bear Grylls, men and women from the sports arena like George Foreman, Novak Djokovic, Simona Halep, Margaret Court and Siya

Kolisi, as well as astronauts such as Dr Buzz Aldrin, David Randolph Scott and Gene Cernan. COMING SOON: Book 2, A New Logic to Faith 10% of royalties earned for sales of Passage to Faith will be donated to www.breadlineafrica.org annually
