The Cunning of the Dove
Alfred Duggan 2007-01-04 St Edward the Confessor, King of the English, is commonly despised by historians; he was the last of his dynasty, and both his country and his crown were conquered by the foreigner. But that foreign conquest was exactly what St Edward had wished for; in this novel Alfred Duggan brings to life different customs, races and languages, as well as the struggle for power between the Godwinesons and other great Earls - a Saxon England which seemed too large a country to unite except in dread of the Vikings.

The Beekeeper's Promise
Fiona Valpy 2018-05 Heartbroken and hoping for a new start, Abi Howes takes a summer job in rural France at the Château Bellevue. The old château echoes with voices from the past, and soon Abi finds herself drawn to one remarkable woman's story, a story that could change the course of her own life. In 1938, Eliane Martin tends beehives in the garden of the beautiful Château Bellevue. In its shadow, she meets Mathieu Dubosq and falls in love for the first time, daring to hope that a happy future awaits. But France's eastern border is darkening under the clouds of war, and history has other plans for Eliane... When she is separated from Mathieu in the chaos of German occupation, Eliane makes the dangerous decision to join the Resistance and fight for France's liberty, but with the war in sight, her loyalty to Mathieu is severely tested. From the bestselling author of Sea of Memories comes the story of two remarkable women, generations apart, who must use adversity to their advantage and find the resilience deep within.
