Robin Hood and the Castle of Bones

Angus Donald 2028-12 Spring, 1192 - Robin Hood and his band of men, travelling home from the Third Crusade, find themselves in the lush, wine-rich Duchy of Burgundy. When they are captured by a renegade knight, and taken across the River Saone to the rival County of Burgundy, they are plunged into a nightmarish world of treachery, deceit and cold-blooded murder. While the cunning Earl of Locksley plots and schemes to advance King Richard's cause in the two Burgundies, Alan Dale, his loyal lieutenant and personal trouvère, embarks on a private quest to rescue a damsel in distress and fails foul of the monstrous guardian of the Castle of Bones.

The English Army is besieging Carrickfergus in Ireland. Brilliant but unusually gentle Holcroft Blood of the Royal Train of Artillery is ready to unleash his cannons on the rebellious forces of deposed Catholic monarch James II. But this is more than war for Captain Blood, a lust for private vengeance burns within him. His intelligence agent Henri d'Erlois comes across the seas to foment rebellion against William of Orange with the derni's installateur resident, Nikolas de Butcher, a former French officer who dreams of glory in the Olympic games only to find himself leading a ragtag band of defenders in the wake of a surprise attack. The award-winning author of The Wisdom of the Shire.
